

Farewell to Lynn Roberts

It is with mixed feelings that I write this newsletter to say farewell to our Alliance Coordinator, Lynn Roberts. Lynn has been the face and the voice of the Canadian Disability Policy Alliance for many of you who have reached out to us over the past 7 years. In addition to managing the website and the budget for the CDPA, she has convened meetings, issued scholarships, sent newsletters, designed reports, supervised students, liaised with partners, reviewed policy, researched literature, maintained databases, arranged travel, coordinated proposals, and too many more things to mention – all with a smile and an offer to do more! On behalf of all of you, I extend our best wishes to Lynn in her new job at the Centre for Studies in Primary Care at Queen's U.
