

Timeline of disability policy

One of the most frequently consulted reports on the CDPA website is entitled, “A Canadians With Disabilities Act?” In this report, we characterized the development of disability policy in Canada in three phases:

- 1980 - 1995 – International Pull
- 1996 - 2005 – Provincial Push
- 2006 - present – Federal Monitoring

Accompanying this report is an interactive timeline of disability policy that was constructed by several research associates that we supported over the past 5 years<sup>1</sup>. The timeline covers more than four decades of progress in disability policy. Click here and explore!
